

Catering Menu

Mexico's Deli is a small family owned business and we would like to offer a few catering options available for pick up and drop off only. You will have the option to either pick up the food from our location, or we would be happy to drop it off at the location of your choice. Below we will provide the catering menu explaining the prices, food options, how many people it serves, as well as the sides that will be included with our dishes.

(We will need three days in advance to place your order)
